ARIANE

Tangy/sweet/very crunchy/juicy

Ariane is a marriage of flavors. The variety was developed as a natural cross by our French cousins. It is both sweet and tart, firm and crunchy, juicy and sparkling in the mouth, for genuine taste. Bi-colored, deep red with brilliant sequins, Ariane combines elegance and rusticity.

End of October to **

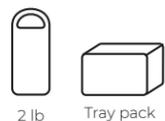

SWEETANGO

Honey-lemon taste/very sweet/crunchy

The Sweetango apple is very crunchy and sweet, with hints of citrus, honey and spice. It offers the perfect combination of crispy and juicy. The fruits are usually large size.

Septembre to Décembre

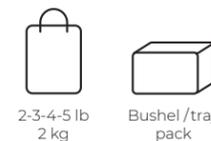

LATE VARIETIES

GINGER GOLD

Yellow/sweet/crunchy/spicy

Its yellow color and golden flesh reveals a spicy taste, hence its variety name.

September

MCINTOSH

Crunchy/juicy/aromatic

Familiar to all Quebecers, the McIntosh is good for just about anything, but especially excellent in apple sauce. Bi-colored with white flesh, it reveals a very balanced palate.

From mid-September

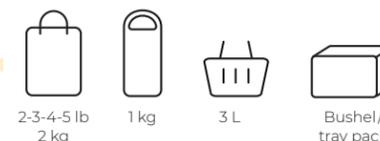

HONEYCRISP

Honey taste/sweet/very crunchy/very juicy

Honeycrisp is a very popular variety with consumers because it is exceptionally crispy and juicy. It owes its name to the fine taste of honey that characterizes it. It is fabulous quartered and tasted raw.

End of September to March

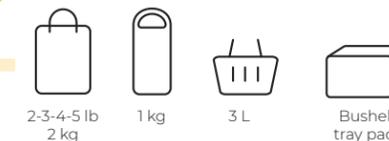

GALA

Very crunchy/very sweet/aromatic

Gala is a great apple to eat fresh. It has a very firm and crisp yellow flesh. Attractive with its colorful stripes and shape, this apple has a smooth delicate skin.

End of September to March

EARLY VARIETIES

JERSEY MAC

Crunchy/firm

First early large size, dark red with white flesh. It is slightly tart for an early variety, but sweet and aromatic.

Mid-August to September

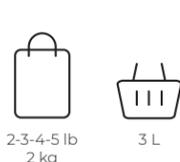

SUNRISE

Crunchy/sweet

Great to sink your teeth into, it is considered the best early apple. It is categorized as early because of its short shelf life.

Mid-August to September

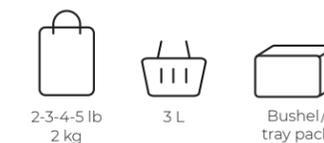

SPARTAN

Crunchy/slightly tart/sweet

The Spartan with its nice plump shape and very beautiful red complexion is one of the crispiest! It is sometimes confused with the Empire.

Starting in October

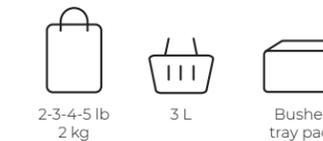

CORTLAND

Crunchy/sweet/
does not brown

Characterized by its exceptionally tasty bright white flesh, Cortland is ideal for cooking. In addition, it is excellent to bite into and is perfect for crafting unforgettable salads.

Starting in October

PAULARED

Mid-August to September

Paulared is the first late variety apple to arrive on the market. Its acidic taste and bright colors are typical of early apples.

Mid-August to October

LOBO

Crunchy/juicy

This rustic apple has a strong resemblance to the McIntosh. Often produced in large sizes, this classic bi-colored variety is delicious to bite into.

September

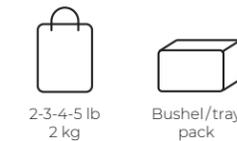

GOLDEN DELICIOUS

Juicy/sweet/aromatic

Golden Delicious has a crisp and juicy creamy white flesh that is both sweet and slightly tart, with a touch of honey.

October to December

EMPIRE

Crunchy/firm/sweet

The Empire is distinguished by its deep red color, sometimes even purple and its sweet yet slightly tart taste. Its flesh is cream colored. It is the perfect snacking apple.
